STAMMERING CURED!

Dr. BRONSON and C. C. BEERS

ARE happy in announcing that STAMMERING CAN be permanently CURED by medicine and Vocal Gymnastics. It is first treated as a nervous disease (like St. Vitus's Dance, Epilepsy, Fits etc.) and then the habit incident to the disease corrected by exercise in elocution. Mr. Beers has been an inveterate stammerer for thirty five years, has attended many institutions for the cure of stammering, and expended hundreds of dollars without any permanent benefit, but cured himself in months and has ever since remained so. With the same means we have cured others, to whom we would gladly refer if requested—embracing fifteen in a single instance.—Being satisfied from reason, experience and observation, that stammering is the effect of a nervous disease, and can be perfectly cured by the above means in the course of two or three weeks, we assure all interested of a time gratifying result, and guarantee a permanent cure or refund the small fee paid in advance. Those desiring further information on these subjects, (including terms, guaranty etc.) can obtain it from our New Work, just issued, on Stammering, its Effects, Causes and Cure, &c., illustrated by 100 engravings. Price One Dollar, on the receipt of which the book will be sent without expense, and the money thus paid will be credited in the bill for treatment. Both are furnished at reasonable terms. Cancers Cured without Pain!!

FOR the terrible scourge of man a remedy is found which has never failed to cure when fairly tested. The knife and plaster are both uncertain and painful, while this antidote, charm like, removes all cancerous tissue from the system, when the cancer, internal or external, ceases to be. Females are equally liable to this malady, and should at its earliest intimation, avail themselves of this remedy. It is but safe to conclude that the number who die annually of this hidden foe to equal if not surpassing those on which it is apparent only on the surface. Calls at a distance will be considered. Maine—Her Position and Prospects.

The prospects for the citizens of Maine are encouraging. The season now drawing to a close, has been one of great fertility. The farmers in every portion of the State, have been rewarded with abundant harvests in the earlier and the later crops. At least five counties in the State, and probably one or two others, have raised, this year, their own breadstuffs. This is a great point gained, and at the same time the large potatoe crop in most of the State will lessen the demand for breed at least one-sixth. The season has fully justified that larger faith in bountiful nature, which, the last spring caused so much greater breadth of land to be planted with potatoes and corn. Both these crops have yielded well, and are in good order and of excellent quality. Maine is better furnished now with feed for cattle and horses and food for man, than it has been for many years. This is a good basis for future operations in enlarging agricultural improvements and in promoting general industrial enterprises. The great mass of the people of Maine, the tillers of the soil have great cause for contentment. They should improve this season of their special prosperity in providing in the best manner for future large crops, and for the most profitable application of their resources to the improvement of the soil, and to making their homes attractive by bringing about them the delights of fruit tree, vine and shrub—of shelter, shade and protection,—of neatness, good taste, abundance and beauty. In this way, farmers can help themselves and make an honorable contribution to their profession.

One of our city farmers, Asa Davis, Esq., (and even he acknowledges that he could do, and ought to do much better with his land,) has, this year, raised from fifteen acres of land the following crops:

Eighteen tons hay, 87 bushels barley, 80 bushels potatoes, 30 bushels oats, 23 bushels corn, 5 bushels Ruta Bags turnips, 3 bushels beans, 2 bushels peas, sold of sweet corn 48 worth, pumpkins $3. The whole crop worth $152,17.

This is arms-length cultivation compared with what some of the gardeners in our city effect. They manage to get a thousand dollars worth from a single acre.

It is highly gratifying that many of our citizens have become interested in the cultivation of a few acres in the suburbs. In a few years the outlands of Bangor will be exceedingly attractive by high culture and the planting of fine trees. It would be well to have the plot of a friend of ours carried out, in which he proposes that teamsters and others each purchase within a mile or two of the market two or three acres of land, and improve it for an ultimate homestead. Indeed we learn that a large field on Stillwater avenue is to be offered in lots of two acres each, for the accommodation of those wishing a homestead of good size, combining city and country life.

The success of agriculture in Maine is highly important in itself, and it is also important on account of its influence in promoting manufactures. We fear that notwithstanding all that has been said upon the subject, and the fact that so many interests unite in the greater diversification of labor and business enterprises in Maine, still the people do not sufficiently regard the matter as a practical affair, in which every man should feel an interest.

Could the subject be fully understood and appreciated, it would be found that capital would hold itself in readiness to promote and encourage manufacturing in all the various branches adapted to the resources of the State and the wants of the people.

It is now the almost universal complaint that mechanics find it the most difficult to inspire capitalists with confidence in their enterprises, or to engage their attention regarding the common manufacturing interests. The fact is, that greater profit may come to our city, for instance, in the encouragement of various home manufactures in leather, wood, iron, wool, &c., than in pushing our lasts and fashionable lumber business to a great extent. We need here a greater diversification of labor and enterprise than to allow one business to monopolize most of the capital and credit of the people. It is not promotive of real prosperity to have the home mechanic running about to hunt up the end of a few hundred dollars, and finding it difficult to do so, when a larger but not more important business can command hundreds of thousands of dollars credit. Bangor ought now to be spotted all over with little steam engines and mechanic's shops, and the whole city become a hive of industry, and everybody interested in productive labor, and in promoting individual thrift and the public prosperity. If we go on in disregard of these things, we shall become an extravagant and indolent people. Let the whole matter be reviewed in each household and home, and some practical advantage will result.

The shipbuilding interest in the State, that has drooped for a year past, appears to be hopefully recovering, and will, doubtless, soon assume a healthy tone, and move at a paying basis. This business has run through some perils and extravagancies in years past, but in coming back to sober realities and to real uses, will, for long years, continue to be an active and profitable element in the industry of Maine.

The present range of prices of material will not warrant the outlay of starting large manufacturing enterprises, but in the prospective improvement in the times, every one should be encouraged to engage with breathing zeal in so much manufacturing as shall supply, at least the home market, and keep both the money and the people of Maine at home.

On the whole, without going into a full discussion of this subject at the present time, we may say that the year draws to a close with a hopeful aspect, for our State. The general prosperity is better than for a number of year past, and it may safely be inferred but present advantages will serve to quicken and promote new enterprises, and thus the State make greater progress in the future than she has in the past.

COOL. The Bangor Journal deserves credit for a piece of as consummate assurance as we have seen for many days. It takes the following, recently adopted as the platform of the Grant to Club, of this city, as the "main planks of the Whig platform":

"1. The Constitution of the Union—The only true guide for faithful political action, nationally and locally. Laws established to secure the enforcement of the provisions of the Constitution must be sustained.

"2. No geographical lines that shall array one section of the Union against the other. No barriers, geographical or political, between the North and South, but a great and harmonious family of States.

"4. A welcome to the oppressed of all the world.

"5. Free and unrestrained exercise of the mind in all matters of Religion.

"6. Secret political societies are opposed to the spirit and genius of our free institutions.—Measures that cannot stand public scrutiny should perish in the hands that conceived them.

We are glad, however, to see our contemporary take his place upon so broad and patriotic a platform; but he had better declare himself for the Democracy at once. Boston Times.

The Journal has done it at some time ago—It has labored "for the democracy," with all its might, since the commencement of the last campaign, and if it now appropriates the platform of the Democratic Granite Club, of Boston, the Times ought not to call it larceny, for the proceeds of the theft will all go to the benefit of the democratic party. If the Whigs are deluded with the idea that they have been furnished with a Whig platform, when, in fact, it is only borrowed from the resolutions of one of Frank Pierce's Granite Clubs, the cheat is only part and parcel of the swindle by which their votes are to be transferred, if possible, for Pierce's benefit, next year.

"IMPORTED POLITICIANS." We understand that Abraham Sanborn, Esq., of this city, has been invited to address the Liberals of Boston during the coming week. Several other speakers from Maine are announced to deliver addresses for the Hunkers in various parts of Massachusetts and a number from New York.

The opposition in Massachusetts do not appear by deeds, to so much of an insult upon the people to "import" their speakers from abroad as it was deemed for the Republicans of Maine to do a similar thing; and we presume our friend Sanborn will not consider his speaking at Boston, for the benefit of George Evans as any unwarrantable "interference" in the politics of other States.

The Journal says that of the two States, which have held their elections this year, (six of them slave-holding States,) the Democrats have carried eight, the Republicans two, and the Know Nothings two—and wants to know what the prospects of the Republicans are.—We think they are good. But the Journal does not ask what are the prospects of the Strait Whigs, in view of the above.

New Publications.

EXTRACTS FROM THE DIARY AND CORRESPONDENCE OF THE LATE AMOS LAWRENCE. With a Brief Account of Some Incidents in his Life. Edited by his Son William R. Lawrence, Boston: Gould, Lincoln & Co. 1855.

The biography of a man like Amos Lawrence, whose life was one of continued brightness and benevolence, and who rose to well deserved opulence from a beginning of honest industry, and the constant exercise of the qualities of industry and integrity in the mercantile profession—is one of the most useful works which can be placed in the hands of our young men who are just entering upon active life. It vindicates the truth of the axiom, too often forgotten in the race for wealth, that "honesty is the best policy," in the end. The life of Mr Lawrence also shows that an active and constant Christian benevolence, and the exercise of a judicious and warm-hearted charity, is by no means inconsistent with the accumulation of great wealth, but on the contrary may give a man that ever present faith and hope which tends to increase while it scatters it. We understand the merchants of Boston have generally presented copies of this book to their clerks, and we can imagine no gift likely to be of more value to them. It comprises 381 large octavo pages, and is done up in handsome style. For sale by E. F. Duren.

Piscataquis Musical Convention.

MR. EDITOR.—The Annual Convention of the Piscataquis Musical Association was holden this week at Dover—commencing on Tuesday and continuing until Friday evening, when it closed by a chaste and elegant concert, given to a densely crowded audience.

Prof. B. F. Baker of Boston was the presiding spirit, and rendered the Convention highly entertaining and instructive.

Miss Hattie Herring also of Boston, was the Prima Donna. She will be recollected by many as the young lady who sang to Chase's concerts last winter, and who won great applause. The Democratic Advocate of March 22nd, published at Lewiston, says of her, "She very far exceeds anything we ever heard. She is a young lady of unassuming personal appearance, modest bearing, and what is that par excellence more of the divine than of the mortal. She is the modern Jenny Lind, and we doubt whether even Jenny herself, disrobed of her great reputation, ever saw the day that she could excite the unimportuned Hattie."

The Friday evening concert-singing was made up of Solos, Duetts, Quartettes, and Choruses, all performed in excellent taste, but the Solos sung by Miss Harrington par excellence, attracted our attention, her execution of them was unsurpassable. She has a native vocal power unsurpassed. Prof. Baker and other good judges present were enthusiastic in their admiration of her singing.

Mr Tracy, of Bangor, pianist, has few equals, and there were many other musicians of great merit present.

The Convention passed to the satisfaction of all who left. Sociality there had a glorious time.

DOVER, Oct. 20th, 1855.

We stepped into Normbega Hall to hear Mr Tracy's "Grand Concert. Owing to the unusual interest excited here among our musical people, we found the hall crowded. Of course resident musicians, Mr Tracy, the manager, Mrs Bradley, Mr Hooke, and a chorus class, appeared. Mr Tracy executed a piece called a Pastoale by Lenz, and Mrs Bradley sang "A fairy I would be." Mr Hooke played in a very creditable manner an "Air with variations," by De Beriot. The chorus class, (consisting of some twenty persons,) in the Hallelujah, made up in spirit what they acked in numbers.

Considering the position which Mrs Long and Mr Hall occupy in the musical world, they certainly cannot allow us to judge of them from what we heard last night. We were disappointed in finding, with two or three exceptions, nothing upon the programme but compositions of a high and trivial character. We trust hereafter to chronicle a decided improvement in this respect.

The Musical Association at Normbega Hall, are having an unusually large and talented Convention.

The attractions are unusually great, and the managers have conceded to the wishes of the public and given them an opportunity to attend the performances this evening, through the day to-morrow, and the grand Concert on Friday evening, at 50 cents. Tickets can be procured at the bookstores and at the door.

The Buckspor Light Infantry arrived in this city last evening for the purpose of attending the Regimental Muster, which it was erroneously reported would take place to-day. We regret that they should be disappointed, and hope that it will not deter them from attending at the appointed time.

It should be remembered that Wednesday, the 31st inst., is the day fixed upon for the review and parade. A good display of military and one or two fire companies are expected.

PENOBSCOT EXCHANGE. This convenient and commodious hotel has recently passed by lease into the hands of Dea. Fuller, Esq., who will carry it on. Mr F. has been connected with the Exchange for the past year and a half, and is so favorably known to the customers of the house that he needs no recommendation. We have no doubt that the Exchange will fully sustain its present reputation.

THE OHIO ELECTION. We take the following extract from an article in the Boston Atlas, showing the character of the recent contest in Ohio, and the gratifying nature of the result:

At the Republican Convention, in July last, where all parties were fairly represented, a ticket was put in nomination, at the head of which was placed the name of the distinguished Ex Senator, Salmon P. Chase. The other candidates are understood to have been in sympathy and connection with the Know Nothing Order, although at the time of their nomination fully committed to the Republican party. The ultra Know Nothings, notwithstanding they had participated in the Republican Convention, and were bound in honor to sustain its nominees, bolted Mr Chase's nomination, and trotted out Allen Trimble in his place—a former Whig Governor. They did all in their power to enlist the co-operation of those true Whigs who were attached to Whig principles, and looked with regret on the dissolution of the Whig party. The merchants of Cincinnati were told, in doleful strains, that in the event of Mr. Chase's election, Southern customers would be torn farewell, and their marts of business would be vacant. And not only this, the lurid passions which disinherited men hate to—religious intolerance and hatred of exiles from foreign despotisms, were appealed to, and every effort put forth to inflame them. The hideous, grim spectre of abolitionism was everywhere invoked. But amid all the distractions of the contest, the great mass of the true Whigs were not to be disconcerted or deceived. They saw above and beyond all selfish intrigues and importune issues, the great question of the vindication of public faith, and the restoration of freedom to the territory protected against slavery by the Missouri Compromise. To them the choice lay between Republicanism and Nebraskaism. The result has proved their fidelity and wisdom. The Republican ticket on April 8th chose the Governor by 20,000, and the rest of the ticket by twice that majority while Trimble, in a vote ranging between 300,000 and 350,000, does not receive more than 30,000 votes, of which 9,000 were cast in Hamilton county. But for the prodigious efforts put forth in Cincinnati, a leading centre of Southern trade, which is, to a great extent, settled by emigrants from the South, he could not have received 5,000 votes, and would not, probably, have been started as a candidate. This vote was, in the main, cast by nitra Know Nothings. The fidelity of the Whigs of Ohio—God bless them—has saved that noble State from the disgrace, otherwise inevitable, of enduring the foulest administration in our history, with all its perfidy, and its resolute and comprehensive plan of converting this continent into a great slave empire. They saw that the only means of permanently abiding liberty and union are to be found in the co-operation of all who regard them as uppermost dear. By their constancy and patriotism they have prevented the election of a U. S. Senator, who would be, like his colleague, George E. Pugh, the disciple of Calhoun and Atchinson.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION. Baltimore, Oct. 20. By the arrival of the Southern mail, as late as due, we have New Orleans papers containing the details of late Mexican news, continuing the accession to the Presidency. Alvarez received 18 votes, Comonfort 3, Ocampo 1, Valdarri 1. Valdarri has published a communication, denying the reports that he was an annexationist. He also publishes accounts of several offers of assistance, which he received from Americans, and which he had declined, and says he recommended some Texans, who had proffered him their services, to retire to the other side of the river, threatening them if they did not do so.

THE AROOSTOOK COUNTY furnishes the following information relative to the whereabouts of Gen Santa Anna:—

Santa Anna and family are safely installed in and near Carthagena. Our readers are aware that he has a beautiful residence but a few miles distant from Carthagena. His hacienda was under good cultivation, two years ago, when he left it at the end of his pecuniable in Mexico. He now returns to private life for the third time; and we presume the little profit of tobacco must have risen a little to include him to procure his refreshments three times a day, instead of his eighteen, as heretofore.

Portland Advertiser, Oct. 22, 1855. M. F. C.

PROPOSED MARRIAGE OF THE ENGLISH PRINCESS ROYAL. The London Times announces the arrival in England of Prince Frederick William heir presumptive to the Prussian throne,—for the purpose of "improving his acquaintance with the Princess Royal," the eldest daughter of Victoria. The Times says that it is understood, as far as a matter of this kind can be understood, that in the year 1851 when her Royal Highness had attained the mature age of ten years, a kind of preliminary understanding was entered into that she was one day to become the bride of this young Prince; and now that he Princess has attained the age of 15 years, it may be supposed that the negotiation is about to advance another stage.

But, to this the "Thunderer" is disposed to make sundry objections. It is suggested, that Prussia is undergoing a rapid and visible decay, which may soon send this lady, should she become the Queen of Prussia, crownless pennyless and friendless to her mother's house, to be supported by her sturdy old father John Bull. But a more serious objection than this even, is the inextricable intermixement of the Prussian and Russian Royal families. It asks:—"Why should we place a daughter of England in a situation in which devotion to her husband must be treason to her country—why distract her mind, between wishes for the welfare of the family which she has left and that into which she is to be received?"

The Times suggests, moreover, that all the German thrones are now sustained by Russia, and that, with her humiliation they must crumble and fall before the power of a vindictive and indignant people.—Traveller.

HOW TO FIRE GLASS. When it is desired, to the laboratory of the chemist to divide glass tubing accurately into pieces of a certain specified length, the following simple recipe will be found invaluable. Having immersed a small three-cornered file in spirits of turpentine, file the tube in the direction desired with one of the edges of the file, keeping the point of friction constantly wet with the liquid. By using a flat side of the file in the same manner, the ragged edges of broken tubes may be rendered perfectly smooth and even. Glass, in all shapes, may be easily bored by using the point of the file, providing the point of friction be constantly moistened with the same liquid as above. This plan applies equally well in cutting all other articles of glass, and is strongly recommended for its rapidity and from the fact that it avoids all danger of cracking. It will be found infinitely superior to the old method of simply using the file.

WHAT THE WAR CONSUMES.—One of the steamboat companies on the Rhone, forwarded in one week's time to Marseilles, 80,000 pounds of powder, 420 000 pounds sundry war materials, 730 000 pounds shells and balls, 6000 pounds cuirasse cuirasses, 270,000 pounds camp and stable materials, 250,000 pounds hospital materials, 26,000 pounds tents, 13,200 pounds India rubber sacks, one chloroform apparatus of 48 pounds, 22 bay presses of 2000 pounds each, 13,500 pounds sausages, 58,000 pounds glass, earthen and willow ware, 3600 pounds vegetables, 42,316 pounds earth sacks for the artillery, 214 pounds quinine. It is calculated that from 800 to 900,000 pounds are shipped daily from France to the Crimea.

POST OFFICE DEFALCATIONS. For some time past, says the Cincinnati Times there have been complaints made by the Post Office department at Washington of the large number of letters, with money in them, lost in transmission through Ohio, and which is said to far exceed that of any other state. Within five months, no less than eleven Postmasters have been arrested, charged with this system of peculation all of whom have been examined, and several held to bail to stand trial.

FOREIGN INTERFERENCE.—Judge Shepley is announced to speak at a Democratic Caucus at Faneuil Hall, Boston, on Thursday evening next.

Hon. Henry A. Wise is also expected to speak on the occasion. Gen. Anderson of Portland and Hon T. M. Hayes of Saco, are also "up for a speech" likewise.

We believe our neighbor of the Argus, previous to our election had something to say about Massachusetts and foreign interference! Suppose it is all right now.—Advertiser.

SLAVES EMANCIPATED.—The Wheeling Times of Tuesday, states that about thirty colored persons of both sexes, who were lately emancipated by the executor of the late Miss Johnferro of King William county, Virginia, passed through that city on Monday morning on their way to Mercer Pleasant, Ohio, nine miles west of Wheeling, where they are to be located among a society of Friends.

ISABELLA GRAPES. Our Isabella Grapes, strange to tell, have ripened well this year, notwithstanding the chilliness of the whole growing season. We have gathered some as well ripened clusters—the berries being of a jet black color covered with a bloom,—as we have seen for many years, and they are sweet and delicious.—Hunt's Intel.

About one in five of the deaths which occur in New York are from consumption. During four years preceding 1855, the Inspectors, reports show that 10,555 deaths occured from consumption and six hundred diseases. The increase of the disease is said to be gaining on the population. The whole number of deaths from it in 1851 was 2374, and in 1854, 2952.

COMMISSIONER OF TAXES, &C. In Executive Council on Friday last, the nomination of Joseph A. Sanborn, Esq., of Readfield, as Commissioner of the Treasury, in place of Woodbury Davis, State Treasurer resigned, was unanimously confirmed.

[For the Daily Whig and Courier.]

"When the Flowers go, I shall cease."

"When the sunshine winds are sighing,
And the Frost-King's heel is lying
On the upland and the lea,
And the heart grows sad and weary,
Of the days so dull and dreary,
I shall come across the sea."

Thus he wrote me when the flowers
That became the summer hours,
Wore their robes of richest hue—
When the birds were sweetly singing,
And the tuneful charms of springing,
Made our world so fair to view.

Rosy morn and sunset golden,
By the same enchantment holden,
Seemed of life to form a part;
And the warm south breezes playing
Round me, seemed the blest words saying,
"I shall come when these depart."

O, then sweeter blushed the morning!
Richer grew the fields adorning—
Deeper tints the rose-bloom wore!
While my heart kept singing ever,
Strains of music that had never
Gushed from out its fount before.

With no sigh I've watched the fading
Of the flowers, and tender shading
Of the green upon the trees—
Listened for the last low murmur
Of the laughing, joyous summer,
With a heart light as its breeze.

It has gone, and autumn's shadows
Fast are creeping o'er the meadows—
Woodlands wear their regal crown—
Countless leaves, of every color,
Pink and scarlet, gold and yellow,
In the forest's lap lie down.

Will he come, or will the morrow
Bring its weight of grief and sorrow,
Filling all my heart with gloom?
Hidden! Hope is scarce sending,
Pale to deepen a happy ending—
I will wait the fulness of time, while others

He had been a great sufferer from scrofula for a number of years, and finally all parts of his body broke out into sores, rendering him an object of horror to every one. He tried some of the most reputed remedies known, but they did not touch his complaint, and in the greatest alarm he consulted a friend as to what course he ought to adopt, when Holloway's Ointment and Pills were recommended, which he commenced using, and by persevering in these remedies a short time, he was perfectly cured, after every other remedy had failed

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

As a consequence of our variable and capricious North American climate, coughs, colds, and affections of the lungs prevail amongst our people to an extent wholly unknown in Europe, and if neglected often assume a dangerous, if not incurable form. Many thousands die annually in England of CONSUMPTION. In the New England States the proportion is one in four or five. In Boston, probably one in four. In the city of New York, sixty seven died in two weeks, in December, of this disease. Nature's own remedy is at our hand. The Wild Cherry and the Pine Forests as with a cure where a cure is possible

IMPORTANT PROCLAMATION!

A Great Mystery Explained.

In the year of our Lord 1847, in our capacities of analytical chemists, we discovered that by uniting certain vegetable agents, which had never before been used in medicine, we obtained properties possessing such a marvellous quick power over PAIN, that the moment it was applied to the parts affected with pain, all uneasiness ceased. The most torturing pains were relieved in an instant, and the most violent spasms and irritations were soothed, and the system restored to perfect ease in a few minutes.

In 1849 we introduced this Remedy to the world under the name of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

It has been used by hundreds of thousands throughout the United States, giving instant ease to all troubled with Pain or Sickness.

DR. J. H. SCHENCK'S

SEA WEED TONIC,

—FOR THE—

Cure of Dyspepsia.

THIS remedy is composed of a compound preparation of a common weed growing along the sea shore, and is a certain remedy for the cure of Dyspepsia and its accompanying diseases, to wit:

Sour and Sick Stomach, Loss of Appetite Headache, Pain in the Side and Breast, Palpitation of the Heart, Ulcers and Eruptions of all kinds, Chills and Fever, Gravel, and Diseases of the Kidneys, Nervousness, Weakness of the Limbs, Fainting Spells, and all diseases peculiar to Females.

Nearly every person is more or less afflicted with Dyspepsia or some of the diseases connected with it, and it is with feelings of pleasure that Dr. Schenck can announce to all such the discovery of the virtues of the Sea Weed, which is just the remedy for their ailments. Dyspepsia and the many diseases arising from it, is caused by the deficient secretion of the gastric juices, and weakness of the powers of the stomach. The effect of the Sea Weed Tonic is felt soon after it is taken, as it supplies at once the principles of the deficient gastric juice, and the food is digested naturally. In fact the Tonic so nearly resembles the natural gastric juice that chemists even find difficulty in distinguishing them. It gives tone and strengthens the stomach, thus enabling it to secrete the proper quality and quantity of Gastric juice, and Dyspepsia and all its diseases soon disappear.

It is a well known fact that none suffer like the Dyspeptic, for in addition to the Dyspepsia there is often either Headache, Sour and Sick Stomach, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Chills and Fever, Gravel, Disease of the Kidneys, Nervous Weakness and Tremors, General Debility, Faintness, Loss of Appetite, Bad Taste, Fever, Stoppages in Females, all or each of them arising from a disordered state of the Stomach, and here is a newly discovered remedy, for the trifling sum of one dollar, that will cure all this train of diseases.

Now, Dyspeptic, will you not avail yourself of this remedy for so trifling a cost? or will you still suffer on? The choice is for you to make. The Sea Weed Tonic is a pleasant bitters, giving a person a good appetite and good digestion. Is put up in quart bottle, always agrees with the stomach, and one bottle generally effects a cure. Whenever the bowels are costive, the tongue furred, or the complexion sallow, a few of Schenck's Mandrake or Liver Pills are to be used. A box of these Pills accompany each bottle of the Tonic, and will be found in a recess of the bottle, covered with a label.

SCHENCK'S

MANDRAKE PILLS

Will be found to possess those qualities necessary to the total eradication of all bilious attacks, prompt to start the secretions of the liver and give a healthy tone to the entire system. Indeed, it is no ordinary discovery in Medical Science, to have invented a remedy for these stubborn complaints, which develope all the results produced by a heretofore free use of calomel—a mineral justly dreaded by mankind—and acknowledged to be destructive in the extreme to the human system. That the properties of certain vegetables comprise all the virtues of calomel, without its injurious tendencies, is now an admitted fact, rendered indisputable by scientific researches, and those who use the Mandrake Pill, will be fully satisfied that the best medicines are those provided by nature in the common roots and herbs of the fields.

The Pills open the bowels and correct all bilious derangements without salivation, or any of the injurious effects of calomel or other poisons. The secretion of bile is promoted by these Pills, as will be seen by the altered color of the stools, and disappearing of the sallow complexion and cleansing of the tongue.

Ample directions for use accompany each box of Pills, and the price of a quart bottle of the Sea Weed Tonic and box of Pills combined is only one dollar. But separate boxes of Pills can be had of any of the agents for 25 cents.

These remedies are prepared under the personal supervision of Dr. J. H. Schenck, proprietor of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, the well established remedy for Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, &c., &c., and the inventor of the celebrated Respirometer, for examining and detecting all diseases of the Lungs, Heart, &c.
